In 1891, Hong Kong observed (v.)庆祝；纪念 its fiftieth anniversary 周年纪念日 under British rule /with a celebration truly befitting (a.)适合；与……相称 of a proper British jubilee （尤指25周年或50周年的）周年纪念, 周年大庆：ships decorated with lights, church services 教堂礼拜 at the Anglican 英国国教的；圣公会的 and Catholic 天主教的 cathedrals 大教堂, a royal salute (n.（尤指士兵和军官之间的）敬礼;致敬；致意) 皇家礼炮 fired from ships in the harbor, a review 检阅 of military forces at the horse racing course 赛马场 in Happy Valley, sporting contests 体育比赛, and a public ball 舞会 at City Hall.

1891年, 香港庆祝了在英国统治下的五十周年, 其庆典堪称一场地道的英国式周年庆典：船只张灯结彩, 圣公会和天主教大教堂举行礼拜仪式, 港口内的船只鸣放皇家礼炮, 在跑马地的赛马场举行军队检阅, 还有体育竞赛以及在市政厅举办的公共舞会。

Example 1. 案例
befit

(v.) (used only in the third person and in participles 仅用于第三人称和分词)[VN] (formal) to be suitable and good enough for sb/sth 适合；对...相称

•It was a lavish reception 接待仪式；欢迎会；招待会 /as befitted (v.) a visitor of her status. 这场铺张的招待, 可算得正适合她这种身份的来访者。
•He lived in the style 后定说明 befitting (v.) a gentleman. 他过的是一种与绅士相称的生活。

→ be- + fit

我问: 这里 truly befitting of 中的 of 是哪来的? befit 做动词时好像不需要后面带of呀?

▶ DeepSeek:

的确是冗余. 可以去掉.

为什么会多出一个“of”？ befitting是动词 befit的现在分词, 但常被当作形容词使用, 意为“合适的, 相称的”。

英语中许多描述“特性、属性”的形容词, 常与 “of” 搭配, 表示“具有...特性的”。例如：
characteristic of(是...的特征)
suggestive of(暗示着...)
typical of(是...的典型)
worthy of(值得...的)
人们可能错误地类比这些结构, 将 befitting也接上了 of, 从而产生了 befitting of这个非标准但广泛使用的短语。

▶ gemini:

(观点和DeepSeek类似)

- 标准用法：A celebration befitting (v.) the jubilee. (简洁)

- 本文用法：A celebration befitting (a.) of the jubilee. ← 在这种结构下, 我们把它看作是"形容词"（Adjective）.你可以直接把 "befitting of" 整体看作是一个形容词短语, 译为"与……相称的"。

当你看到那个 of 时, 就说明 befitting 被"形容词化"了。

Although the jubilee 周年庆祝 reiterated (v.)重申；反复强调 the familiar, self-congratulating 沾沾自喜的,自鸣得意的；自我庆贺的 themes of British colonialism 殖民主义, it was truly a collaborative 合作的；协作的 affair, for local European, Chinese, Eurasian 欧亚混血的, and Indian leaders all helped (v.) organize the festivities 庆祝活动；庆典.

虽然庆祝活动重申了人们熟悉的、沾沾自喜的英国殖民主义主题，但它确实是一件合作的事情，

This collaboration was reflected in the jubilee rhetoric 言辞；话术, which emphasized Hong Kong as a meeting point 聚会地点,交汇点 of East and West: "a curious 稀奇古怪；奇特；不寻常 commentary 评论；评述 on the relative characteristics 特征；特点 of Western and Oriental 东方的 enterprise 进取心；事业；企业活动."

这种合作体现在周年庆典的言辞中，其中强调香港是东西方的交汇点："对西方和东方企业的相对特征, 作出了耐人寻味的评论。"

Example 2. 案例

In 1891, Hong Kong observed its fiftieth anniversary under British rule with a celebration truly befitting of a proper British jubilee: ships decorated with lights, church services at the Anglican and Catholic cathedrals, a royal salute fired from ships in the harbor, a review of military forces at the horse racing course in Happy Valley, sporting contests, and a public ball at City Hall.
Although the jubilee reiterated the familiar, self-congratulating themes of British colonialism, it was truly a collaborative affair, for local European, Chinese, Eurasian, and Indian leaders all helped organize the festivities.
This collaboration was reflected in the jubilee rhetoric, which emphasized Hong Kong as a meeting point of East and West: "a curious commentary on the relative characteristics of Western and Oriental enterprise."

1891年, 香港庆祝其在英国统治五十周年, 其庆典盛况空前, 堪称一场名副其实的英国庆典：船只灯火辉煌, 圣公会和天主教堂举行礼拜仪式, 港口船只鸣放皇家礼炮, 在跑马地赛马场检阅军队, 举办体育比赛, 并在市政厅举行公众舞会。尽管庆典重申了英国殖民主义惯用的自夸主题, 但它确实是一场合作盛会, 因为当地的欧洲、中国、欧亚混血和印度裔领袖都参与了庆典的组织工作。这种合作精神也体现在庆典的宣传语中, 强调香港是东西方文化的交汇点："这巧妙地诠释了东西方企业各自的特点。"

Jubilees 周年庆典；纪念活动 and other commemorations 纪念活动；庆典 create (v.) idealized 理想化的 representations 描述；描绘；表现形式 of societies and their histories.

主 What 后定说明 the 1891 jubilee rhetoric 华丽的言辞；花言巧语 did not explain 系 was that /主 the segregated 被隔离的；实行种族隔离的 Chinese and European communities 谓 often remained (v.) highly suspicious (a.)怀疑的；不信任的 of each other, as would become (v.) evident 明显的；显而易见的 during the bubonic (a.)腹股沟腺炎的；淋巴腺鼠疫的 plague 瘟疫；鼠疫 of 1894.

1891年周年庆典的言辞没有解释的是，实行种族隔离的华人社区和欧洲人社区, 往往对彼此保持高度怀疑，这一点在1894年的腺鼠疫期间, 会变得显而易见。

Example 3. 案例
bubonic

bubo : (n.) (medical 医)a painful swelling of the lymph node under the arm or in the groin（腋下或腹股沟的）淋巴结炎；横痃

Bubonic plague 腺鼠疫：
腺鼠疫（Bubonic plague）是由鼠疫桿菌（Yersinia pestis）引起的嚴重人畜共通傳染病，主要透過受感染的跳蚤, 叮咬囓齒動物後, 傳播給人類。其特徵為"淋巴結劇烈紅腫"（腹股溝、腋下或頸部）、發燒、寒顫和虛弱。未經治療的致死率很高，歷史上曾造成歐洲「黑死病」大流行。

Many disgruntled (a.)不满的；愤愤不平的 Europeans 谓 wanted more political representation 代表；代理权；代表权 and a larger role in managing (v.) the colony 后定说明 they had helped to build.

Alarmed (v.)使惊恐；使担心 by the rise of Chinese nationalism 民族主义 and the potential threats from other powers 强国；大国 in the late 1800s, these Europeans also became increasingly worried (a.) about the colony's defense, a fear partly assuaged (v.)缓和；减轻；使平静 by Britain's acquisition of the New Territories in 1898.

And even 即使 as they became more concerned (a.) about the fate of their ancestral 祖先的；祖传的 homeland, 主 many Hong Kong Chinese —especially among the rising bourgeoisie (n.)资产阶级；中产阶级 — 谓 began to see themselves as a special group of Chinese.

而且，即便他们越来越关心自己祖籍国的命运，许多香港华人——尤其是在新兴的资产阶级中——开始将自己视为一个特殊的华人群体。

Example 4. 案例

Jubilees and other commemorations create idealized representations of societies and their histories. What the 1891 jubilee rhetoric did not explain was that the segregated Chinese and European communities often remained highly suspicious of each other, as would become evident during the bubonic plague of 1894.
Many disgruntled Europeans wanted more political representation and a larger role in managing the colony they had helped to build.
Alarmed by the rise of Chinese nationalism and the potential threats from other powers in the late 1800s, these Europeans also became increasingly worried about the colony's defense, a fear partly assuaged by Britain's acquisition of the New Territories in 1898.
And even as they became more concerned about the fate of their ancestral homeland, many Hong Kong Chinese—especially among the rising bourgeoisie—began to see themselves as a special group of Chinese.

周年庆典和其他纪念活动往往会塑造社会及其历史的理想化形象。1891年的周年庆典言辞未能解释的是, 当时隔离的华人社区和欧洲人社区之间常常存在着高度的猜忌, 这一点在1894年的黑死病疫情中暴露无遗。许多心怀不满的欧洲人渴望获得更多的政治代表权, 并在他们曾参与建设的殖民地管理中扮演更重要的角色。随着19世纪末中国民族主义的兴起以及其他列强潜在威胁的出现, 这些欧洲人也日益担忧殖民地的防御, 而英国在1898年对新界的收购在一定程度上缓解了他们的这种担忧。即便他们越来越关注祖籍国的命运, 许多香港华人——尤其是新兴资产阶级——也开始将自己视为一个特殊的华人群体。
